International Fun Fair!

By: Annalise Pahl, K5

We had a Fun Fair on February 22. It was at our school in the gym and in the new cafeteria. There were lots of country games and you went there with your passport. One of the games at the International Fun Fair was a dart competition. You had to throw the darts to try to pop the balloons. You would win a prize of a juice or a soda. It was kind of hard but it was really fun!

RATON PEREZ

By: Ainara López, K5

I went to Madrid with my family. We went to the house of Ratón Pérez! His house was super tiny. He had a lot of book and a bed. He had eggs and milk to eat. I could not see where he keeps the teeth because he takes them to give to the grandparents whose teeth fall out and makes them into necklaces for the childrens.

Spanish Class Field Trip to see “El Principito”

By: Haydeé Sucre, 3rd Grade

The 2nd to 7th grade Spanish classes went together to see “El Principito!” It was so fun! We had snacks before we went to the play and we got to ride a bus! The play was about a prince from a small planet who ventured out to other planets and found many crazy grown ups there, including a king. My favorite part of the play was when the king controlled the stars and made them clap and yawn.

International Week

February 10 – February 21 was International Week. Some of the parents brought food to help us learn about traditional foods from other countries.

One day, Allegra’s (3rd Grade) mom and grandma brought donuts from Romania. There were some with jam, some with cheese, pineapple and plain. They were soooooo good!

Owen’s (3rd Grade) and Aarya’s (5th Grade) moms brought foods from China and India. There were things like fortune cookies, special candies, sponge cakes, garlic chips and cookies. It was all yummy.

We also had food from Panama and the United States that many moms brought. The American food included cookies and corndogs. The Panamanian food included tortillas, hojaldre, salchica and huevos de leche.

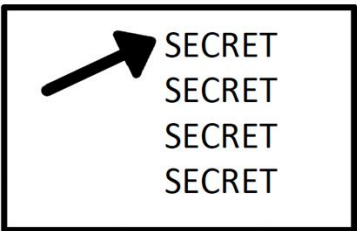

The moms from K5 brought us cookies and chocolate milk with marshmallows from Argentina and the mom from K4 brought rice milk with sprinkles from Venezuela.

International Week was delicious!
