Spirit Week at CCA!

Second Grade students get creative for “Mix and Match” Day!

By: Alessia Rivera,
First Grade

In Spirit Week we dress like a lot of things. We dress like our favorite job, and with crazy hair, and the favorite person of a book. All the days were my favorite days. My friends and me had so much fun.

Field Day at the Park

By: Haydeé Sucre, Third Grade

Friday, March 14 was Field Day. First grade – twelfth grade students went to Clayton Park. We played many games. Some of the games we played included a bouncing ball game, and a game where we had to walk with a friend while we had a band on our legs. I climbed trees too!

They gave us oranges and watermelons for snacks and there were even popsicles for everyone at the end. It was a lot of fun!

Field Day at CCA

By: Annalise Pahl and Ainar López, K5

K3, K4 and K5 did Field Day at CCA. We had three teams that were blue, green and red. We did races in the gym and went on blue boards with wheels! We did water games too. We runned to a chair and pop a water balloon with our butt. We runned with sponges on our head and got very wet. The best part was to chase our friends with water guns. We love this day so much.

All You Need Know About Ms. Ellie!

By: Haydeé Sucre, Third Grade

Ms. Ellie moved to Panamá March 7, 2006. She was born in Argentina. She loves when her students learn how to read and write, or when they learn anything at all! She likes reading, writing, and watching Korean dramas. Her favorite foods are lasagna and Argentinian Asado (barbeque). She is very good at teaching kids and teaching art and good at singing. We all love Ms. Ellie!

Career Day Discoveries

By: Alessia Rivera, First Grade

On Career Day some moms and dads came to the class to teach us about their jobs. My dad is a pilot and flies planes for Copa Airlines. He told us about that. Ana Camila’s mom makes soaps. She told us about the factory and gave us gummies. Mathias’ mom is a missionary and teach us how she helps people to get food and clothes. Damien and Gigi’s dad taught us about being a soldier and keeping people safe. We like to dress up like the job we want and to the learn about what all the parents do for their job!

Dr. Seuss on the Loose!

By: Annalise Pahl, K5

We celebrated Dr. Seuss in the month of March. “Green Eggs and Ham Day” was my favorite. On this day, all the kids wore green shirts. Mrs. Greene gave us green duros that tasted like lemons. They tasted amazing and made our tongues green. In K5 we made green eggs. First, we all washed our hands. Next, all the kids cracked one egg and washed our hands again to get off the egg germs. Then, we stirred the eggs. Last, we ate them. They were so delicious!

Swimming Lessons

By: Damien Guzman, K5

Three reasons I like swimming lessons:

1. I like when we walk from side to side and practice.
2. I like to use the kick boards.
3. I like the deep side and we can learn to go there if we practice!

Futsal Night

By: Allan Arauz, Third Grade

Do you enjoy soccer or futsal? Well, Futsal Night is perfect for you! If you come, you will play a bunch of games. It’s going to be very fun. Highschool kids are going to compete there. See you there on Friday night!

Visit with Author Evelina Preciado

By: Haydeé Sucre, Third Grade

The author of Estrelita came to visit us! She came on February 26, 2025. She came to each classroom and read us her book. I got her signature! She has written two whole books. The book she read is about a boy named Alex who is afraid of the dark. Estrelita is a firefly who guides him through it and teaches him he doesn’t have to be afraid. It was very fun to meet a real author!

Book Review

By: Maria Jose Cabrera, Second Grade

Title: Baby Animals
Genre: non-fiction
Rating: *****

I just finished reading the book Baby Animals. I thought the book was good. When I first started reading, it was boring but then it was very interesting. The book reminded me of a TV Animal Care program. I thought the most interesting part was the true or false part. It reminded me of when I play games with my family. I kept wondering why one thing says true and it is false. This book was good because I learned about animals.

St. Patrick’s Day Fun

By: Ainara López, K5

Patrick was a boy that was kidnapped by pirates. He learn how to pray when he was kidnapped. When he pray God send pigs to eat. He want to tell people about Jesus so he use the shamrock. The shamrock can mean God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. People celebrate St. Patrick on March 17. They use leprechauns and rainbows and shamrocks and pots of gold. We learn it in K5. It was so much fun.

Happy St. Patrick’s Day!

My Dog Cielito

By: Alessia Rivera, First Grade

Cielito is a dog. He is my dog. He is a Yorki. He is very little and he is cute. He is black and brown. He likes to run and jump. He is a puppy and is seven months old. My grandma gave him to me for my birthday. He is a good present. I like to play with him.

Kindergarten

An Acrostic Poem written by K5 students, with groups of two students writing each line collaboratively.

Killer whales?
I am brave.
Not afraid because I love God!
Dad brings me to school.
Every day I am happy.
Really smart students.
God created us and the Animals.
Race you to the pool!
The teacher is silly,
Even when we are bad.
Never give up!
